Hawks and Doves Live Takes Flight at di Rosa

Spend the afternoon of September 21 enjoying a special performance by an ensemble of the Bay Area's most adventurous musicians at di Rosa Center for Contemporary Art.

Napa, CA (September 5, 2024) – Philip Krohn & AUXART'S site-specific work Hawks and Doves will take full flight on September 21, 12 – 2 p.m., with a special performance in di Rosa's Sculpture Meadow by an ensemble of the Bay Area's most adventurous musicians.

A sculptural line-drawing extending over 150 yards through di Rosa's century-old olive grove, Hawks & Doves explores concepts of flight lines, points of view, separation and intersection, need and use, and resolution and rhythm. These points of inquiry will serve as a conceptual score for the group of performers assembled and led by Krohn in collaboration with drummer Scott Amendola. The group of musicians will build an improvised sound conversation in five 10-minute parts, moving from isolated percussion calls to full-throated musical oration, dissonant argument, rhythmic engagement, and a volleying of last words.

Featuring:

Scott Amendola: Drums, Percussion

Mark Clifford: Vibraphone, Marimba

Tara Flandreau: Viola, Violin

Fred Frith: Guitar

Ben Goldberg: Clarinet

Aurora Josephson: Voice
