di Rosa Day brings Halloween Festivities to Napa Valley

With live music, food trucks, art activities, and the crowd-favorite haunted house, there's fun for all ages at di Rosa Day, October 26.

Napa, Ca. (September 4, 2024) – di Rosa Center for Contemporary Art invites guests to di Rosa Day on October 26 from 11 a.m. – 4 p.m. Early Bird tickets are now on sale, through September 30. Ticket prices increase October 1 and remain on sale at full price through October 26.

di Rosa Day presents a day of fall festivities for all ages. The circa-1860 stone residence will be transformed, once again, into a haunted house—an audience favorite of youth and adults alike. In addition to the haunted house, di Rosa Day features interactive wearable sculptures by artist Selby Sohn, and art activities inspired by the exhibition, Moving Pictures: A Survey Exhibition of Works by Deborah Oropallo and Collaborators, with a guided tour of the Sculpture Meadow at 12 p.m. and a Curator's tour of the exhibition at 2 p.m. Visitors of all ages can enjoy spooky eye spy games, food trucks, live music, a costume parade, and trick-or-treating.
